Good morning,

Attached is the current status for planned POU deployments beginning tomorrow.

Please consider what the ask maybe in terms of POU support or deployments after Tuesday, February 22, 2022, as currently everyone is committed and not everyone has robust numbers in terms of sections for relief.

Thank you all for responding and sharing information,
Michelle

Thank you very much Elaine for your notes. Much appreciated.

All, rather than waiting for Jeff McGUIRE's APL to work its way through internal systems here is the ask.

Stay well all and thank you very much for the focused teamwork,

Mike

Thank you for all for meeting so quickly.

Here are the minute from the meeting, just in case anyone missed anything due to technical glitches.

Have a great evening.

1800 hrs	Meeting to update Central Hub Group
	S. Narine - Friday operation is a go. 14 sections total, 4 sections on standby while 10 sections in, 2 hours up period and 8 hours down time. 24 hours for 72 hours. Ottawa, OPP, Durham, Peel, Quebec bring 3
	S. Narine - Tactical plan is to move on outer perimeter inward. 10 person ORT team, TPS has 4 ORT team as well as 8 Mounted. 1 to 2 sections for those outer areas. Officers on the ground will give them warning orders and start with gentle push out/approach and will go harder with those who refused to leave. Eventually end up converging on Wellington and maybe more sections meeting there depending on the level of resistance. West Hub is out for now and will rotate back in again next week. 3 POU commanders heading to Ottawa. Thursdays wheels up and operational on Friday for TPS.
	S. Narine - They are reviewing with their Legal team an exclusion zone for around Ottawa under the Emergencies Act and would be up to police on the ground to enforce. 72 hours operational period to get the bulk of this wrapped up
	M. McDonell - letter has gone to Quebec requesting for additional POU teams/sections. Also working on tow contracts with 15 heavy tows.
	P. Moreira - Mention to trucking companies to consider having wraps to go around the truck logos for reputation, etc
	Durham - Do you know when they will send out request for uniform members and what their schedule may look like?
	M. McDonell - Request will be coming out very soon. Will be similar to POU deployment.
	D. Orr - any briefing on Thursday that we're expected to attend?
	S. Narine - A. Carvalho has been tasked with creating that. Start outside going inward. Are they still asking for soft-hats? Thought there was sufficient participation.

	M. McDonell - 300 from OPP, RCMP as well
	Peel - Confirming 2 hours operations & 8 hours down?
	S. Narine - Confirmed but depending on what they were dealing with
	S. Narine - TPS is sending 1 section consisting of 71 with commanders. Up to your own police service to send commanders
	OPP - Has 1 section in Ottawa who are staying, 10 ORT going, 1 staying in reserve in GTA for operational needs
	W. Gossen - Believes meeting/operating out of RCMP HQ, as there were concerns about radio range, etc
	M. McDonell - Operation is running out of RCMP. RCMP did bring in a commander
	S. Narine - will update this group if needed
